

LIST OF TERMS

Calculated	Analyzed data by the process of mathematical calculation
Categorized	The process of separating the data base on their similarities
Comparison	Process refers to the comparing and contrasting process a about a particular situation or problem with other situation that have been previously encountered
Concept	An idea of something formed by mentally combining all its characteristics or particulars
Condensed	Process is the process of summarizing the data in more concise form and unnecessary detail is removed for better understanding
Connection	The interrelationship between distinct pieces of knowledge or information
Consequence	The judging process of implication and potential result of certain actionable information

Contextualized	The defining process of the purpose data
Conversation	Group discussion or other communications that held in order to learn what other people think about new information
Corrected	The process of removing errors or unreliable data
Dimension	Measurable behavior, characteristic or properties of concept
Element	Component or constituent of a whole or one of the parts into which a whole may be resolved by analysis
Explicit Knowledge	Knowledge that can be processed, transmitted and stored easily because it expressed and systematic language
Factor	One of the elements contributing to a particular result or situation
Instrument	Device or method for measuring the present value of a quantity under observation

Measure	The act or process of ascertaining the extent, dimensions, or quantity of something
Readiness	The condition of being ready
Reliability	The ability to be relied on or depended on measurement instrument
Tacit Knowledge	deeply rooted in action, experiences, ideals, routines and values
Validation	An official sanction, confirmation, or approval to, as elected officials, election procedures, documents, etc.