

LEMBAR PERSEMBAHAN

*For my father, my mother, and my brother.
For my family and friends, who will always be there for me,
who taught me to be a good person with kind heart.
Who taught me to always forgive and be strong.
And to keep going, no matter what happens.
'Because forgiveness doesn't mean that you lose, it means that you're strong and wise'
was the thing i learned.*

*All these years i spent, have made me a better and more mature person.
For all the experiences, lessons and stories i got from my campus life, my teachers, my friends, my loved ones, I sincerely want to thank you from the deepest part of my heart. Despite everything that had happened, I will always cherish all those memories as a happy one, because all of those things have made me who I am today. One day when I'm all grey and old, I believe that I will tell people about these memories with a happy and longing tears in my eyes.*

"One day, you will look back and realize why some things happened, and why some things don't"
