

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

My highest praise I give to God because only by His favor I can complete this research. And I would like to say my gratitude to several people for helping me in this research. First for my advisors Mr. Arfianto Fahmi and Mr. Doan Perdana that has give their best guidance during my research.

I also want to thank my family, my father Toni Widyanto, my mother Yosephin Wahyu, and all my sister Catherine and Rhisa for they unbelievable supports towards me. For their pray and effort. And of course my fiancee Giashinta Larashati for accompanying me all the time and always give me courage when I was in doubt.

The last I want to thank all my friends from Electrical Circuit Laboratory exclusively, and all my friend in Telkom university. Thank you for your all supports.

I hope my research can give positive impacts to the society and can encourage researchs and researchers to develop a better system in the future.
