

ABSTRACT

South Korea is an East Asian countries have a unique culture that spread a lot of countries around the world are interested in learning and understanding about Korean culture, especially the culture is very popular in Korea is K-POP and dramas korea starring Korean artists famous. This raises the interest of teenagers and even adults to learn the Korean language in order to increase knowledge of foreign languages. Therefore we need an application that can help support the learning process of the Korean language. Then made application to Know Korean language learning letters and numbers Korean (Hangeul) for adolescents aged 18-20 years using the Android operating system. In this case the application process using Android Studio. Data used in the form of text, images, audio to support learning. This application is expected to facilitate the users to learn the Korean language that has been equipped with features such as introduction to the history of Hangeul, literacy, numeracy, conversation, the introduction of month, date and year, as well as some of the exercises. Applications can be installed on smartphones with Android operating system version 5.1.1 (Lollipop).

Keywords: Korean, Hangul, Android, Apps