

Abstract

“Cikole in Action” is a mobile application that introduces Cikole, as one of many beautiful tourist destinations in Bandung, to society by presenting its beauty in virtual 360 degrees photo and video format. Direction functionality in this application provides whole Cikole tourist attractions in Virtual Reality mode which user can directly jump into that area just by looking at its button. Moreover, in this application user can feel the sensation of outbound rides that packed in an interactive 360 degrees video of Virtual Reality mode. “Cikole in Action” is intended for users with disabilities, particularly whom limited mobility but it can also be for public users.

Key word : Cikole, photo 360, disabilities