ABSTRACT

Nowadays, the technology development is very rapid. Various aspects of the life of this present time are already supported with technology. Especially information technology. Information technology is already used in a wide range of scope of life. Information technology found in offices, government, education, health and so on. In the business world the use of information technology is needed to improve the profitability of the business. SMEs are the biggest businesses in Indonesia. To increase profit business, information technology can be a solution. Information technology can support the business of SMEs especially in the field manager and logistics. Therefore this application is an application that can be helpers and logistics manager in performing his duties as managing business employees, stock the products as well as various forms of reporting will be important data for a manager. Development of this application using waterfall method. Programming language used for this application is PHP using Code Igniter framework and MySQL as a database to store the data needed to be integrated in this application. With one server system using the SAAS (Software as a Service). Information Systems Point of Sale can ease the job of a manager in the running bisinsnya. Then the Information Point of Sale Systems web based so can be used anywhere.

Keywords: POS (Point of Sales), SAAS (Software as a Service), SMEs (Small and Medium Enterprises)