

ABSTRACT

Parents role in educating their children is important so their children have good character and have growth and development of their brain, physical, mental even good creativity. However, nowadays many parents are busy with their own career so the parents lack of educate their children. Therefore many parents entrust their children to early childhood education so that their children are safe and well educated. This can be seen from the increasing number of children at childcare. Children center is a project that provides facilities for various activities needed by children as supporting education, recreation & child health and also a place for educate, increase independence, and creativity of children.

Design of children center is to reduce parents concern to entrust their children in terms of educating, nurturing and caring for children by providing safe and comfortable facilities to support theirs activities to help shape the childrens' character during the golden age and become a complement in formal and to develop and create childs' talents and also their creativity.

Keyword : Children Center, children's character, children's talents and insteres, children's independence, children's creativity, children's intelligence, children's education, recreation, health.

