

ABSTRACT

The Japan Foundation, Jakarta is a branch of The Japan Foundation in Japan that serves as a cultural center of Japan located in Jakarta, precisely in the building Summitmas 1, South Jakarta. The standard of space and interior of the building follows the interiors of the Summitmas 1 building, with some space being converted to meet the needs of the organized activities. To show identity as a cultural center of Japan, the application of traditional Japanese interior is applied in accordance with the Japanese interior applied by The Japan Foundation in Asia. As well as fulfillment of facilities that can support activities, in accordance with the theme taken.

Keywords: Interior design, cultural center, The Japan Foundation.