

ABSTRACT

MUSLIMAH WEDDING DRESS DESIGN WITH MODERN SYAR'I CONCEPT

By

MAYANG TRESNA DEWI

NIM: 1605140102

(Program Studi Kriya Tekstil dan Mode)

Based on Indonesian Trend Forecasting 2017 - 2018 arranged by BEKRAF, moslem fashion in Indonesia classified in four style, those are conventional shar'i, modern shar'i, conventional modest and modern modest. One of moslem fashion style that becomes trends and highly develops recently is modern shar'i. This Modern Shar'i is a fashion style which still appropriate with shari'at but adding aesthetic elements in its design. This matter can be seen from many Fashion Moslem Industry Makers launch many shar'i fashion collection. The growth of this era and information technology creates the trend that's inappropriate or opposite with Islamic rules. Not only in daily outfits style but also in wedding dresses . That's why has spread many wedding dresses that look inappropriate with Islamic policy. Therefore, it needs an alternative design of moslema wedding dresses which concept modern shar'i. This Modern Shar'i is a fashion style which still appropriate with shari'at but not lose the point of function and the aesthetic. The method that used in this research is doing an observation directly or indirectly to find out the trends of moslema wedding dresses nowadays. After that, collecting reference of data from books, journals and scientific articles. Then analyze it through the experiments and interviews with many sources. This research produce an alternative fashion design for moslema wedding dresses which appropriate with Islamic policy and also the growth of trends which popular these days.

Keywords : Wedding Dress, Muslim Women, Syar'i, Modern, Style

