

FOREWORD

Praised God Almighty for His grace. Prayers and greetings hopefully always poured on the Prophet Muhammad SAW, his family and sahabah. And to all parties who had supported so that the Researcher could complete this bachelor's thesis titled "Model Identification of Economic Empowerment Based on Shari'a Financing: a Case Study on the Beneficiary of 'Mesra Soft Loan". This thesis was designed to fulfil the requirement to obtain academic title in Bachelor of Business Administration on Business Administration Department at Telkom University.

In preparing this bachelor's thesis, the practitioner got help and encouragement from various parties, especially the Researcher's parents who had given endless prayers and assistance, both materially and non-materially, in giving all of the best thing of world to the Researcher. Also a big thank to Telkom University was given, especially for International Program of Business Administration Department, Faculty of Communication and Business for every opportunities and upbringing.

In addition, on this occasion the practitioner also wanted to thank:

1. Mrs. Dr. Hendrati Dwi Mulyaningsih, S.E., M.M. as the Researcher's supervisor that had given contribution significantly for this bachelor's thesis through the time, mind, and attention that had been allocated to guide and to give advice and direction to the Researcher in finishing this bachelor's thesis.
2. All of the examiners who had gave their time and mind to the Researcher.
3. All of the lecturers that had shared their knowledges and experienced while the Researcher had studied on Faculty of Communication and Business, Telkom University.
4. Mr. Syahputra, Ph.D, as the head of Business Administration Department ,Telkom University.
5. Mrs. Trisha Gilang Saraswati, S.E., M.S.M, as the Person-in-Charge for International Program of Business Administration Department, Telkom University.
6. Mr. Mahir Pradana, S.E., M.Sc. as the Internal Supervisor for the Internship program as well as the guardian lecturer of the Researcher who always took care of the Researcher during the study.

7. To Dian Fana, Ayu Agustine, Luthfiana Itsnani, Deasyta Nadine, Hani Khairunnisa, and all of the comrades at AB-39-INT that had contributed the Researcher for this bachelor's thesis.
8. Lukman Tri Wibowo, M.Si., Siti Zea Martiena, S.H., Afifah Larasaty, S.T., Rizka Zuzika, S.Ds., and Siti Raudah Nabilla, S.Psi., who always helped and supported the Researcher through the advices and spirit given.
9. All the parties that cannot be mentioned one-by-one who had supported and helped, may Allah SWT, the Almighty, would always give His rahmah for them.

In writing this bachelor's thesis, the Researcher reliezed that there were still many shortcomings due to the limitations that were owned. Hopefully this bachelor's thesis would be usefull for the Researcher, in particullar, and the Civitas of Telkom University in general

Bandung, January 2019

Muhammad Iqbal