

ABSTRACT

Aditya F, Tio 2019. Director Of Photography In The Bad Friend Film. Thesis. Visual Communication Design. Faculty of Creative Industry Telkom University.

Differences between ethnic groups are Indonesia's wealth, with differences in characteristics that can lead a sense of discomfort of some ethnic groups which aggravate the process of socializing among people. Students are the generation who will lead the next generation and Telkom University has various types of students in it. It requires a media consisting of short films that educate the important nature of mutual acceptance between ethnic groups among Telkom University students. The Director of camera analyze this phenomenon uses mass communication with the results of designing comedy short films that discuss the daily lives of students so that they are closer to real events and can beautify the beauty of diversity.

Keywords: Director of Photography, Short Movies, Differences, Comedy.