GLOSSARY

DRC   : A place specifically intended to place systems, applications, to corporate backup data to anticipate damage or loss.

HVAC   : A system that performs three main functions that have separate channels namely heating, cooling and air ventilation.

NOC   : An infrastructure device that controls a network.

Redundant : Alternative paths used to increase network availability.

UPS   : A hardware device that will supply electricity when the main voltage is not functioning or there is a power outage.

UPTIME   : Is the amount of server time that makes the website active and running without any constraints.