ABSTRACT

The Android-Based Application for Virtual Assistant is an application used to help student know the activities. Mostly student still have difficulty in knowing the daily activities. Not only that, some student who have known the activities but also forgotten because is no one reminding. This android-based built using the protorype method. The making of the application also uses the Java programming language are applied on android studio software as a media to build the application. For the design of program using storyboards and flow in navigation. With the building of this application, is expected to help student to known the activities accurate, also equipped with notification feature for knowing the activities.

Keywords: Activities, Android Stuidio, Prototype