

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

First and foremost, praises and thanks to Allah, the Almighty, for the showers of blessings throughout my research work to complete the research successfully.

I would like to express my deep and sincere gratitude to my research supervisor, Mr. Hertog Nugroho, Ph.D., for giving me the opportunity to do research and provide valuable guidance throughout this research. I would also like to show gratitude to my research reviewers, Mr. Jimmy Tirtawangsa, Ph.D., Mr. Tjokorda Agung BW., S.T., MT., and Mr. Risnandar, Ph.D., for giving me valuable suggestion and inspiration throughout the progress of this research.

My sincere appreciation goes also to my senior, Mrs. Selly Meliana, M.T. and Mr. Yuda Viki, M.Kom, thank you for giving me great insight to develop this research

I would like to say thank my research colleagues, my companions-in-arms, Angga, Ivan, Hilman, Rahman, and Panji, thank you all for friendship, empathy, and great sense of humor. Also I express my thanks to Nurfahmia, Billah, Yusuf, and all my friends who have supported me.

Finally, I am extremely grateful to my family for their love, prayer, and care for my future.
