

ABSTRACT

Bukittinggi is a tourist city that is quite popular and has also become a mainstay of tourism for the Province of West Sumatra, including Indonesia. This city that has natural beauty and is also rich in traditions makes tourists interested in coming to visit and see the culture that is in Indonesia. Tourists who come to visit need supporting facilities such as lodging that makes them comfortable and can support tourist activities while in Bukittinggi. One of the main facilities needed by tourists for lodging is in the form of a hotel. This will be an opportunity for the City of Bukittinggi to introduce Minangkabau culture to tourists who come on vacation.

In this design includes the stage of literature studies related to the design of four-star hotels as well as analyzing four-star hotels. The design of this hotel applies the theme "Many varieties of culture come, budayo kito kambang juo" with the aim of not forgetting Minang culture and developing Minangkabau culture. With this process, it is hoped that the interior design of a four-star hotel in Bukittinggi by preserving Minangkabau culture will be possible.
