

GLOSSARY

Glossary	Description	Appears First in the Page
PMCDF	Project Management Competency Development Framework. A structure for defining, evaluating, and improving portfolio, program or project management competency. It specifies the major competencies characteristics and identifies those that are most likely to have an impact on manager's success in their area.	11
HLD	High Level Design. A broad system design which refers to an overall design of a system and gives an overview of the project.	1
FTTH	Fiber To the Home. One of the services that is provided by PT XYZ. It is an access network that uses fiber optic network transmission media to link service providers with an already-installed equipment at customer's place.	1

APD	As Plan Drawing. Is a sketch or a drawing that is generated using AutoCad in order to plot the road and fiber optic components can address the field needs clearly for the construction process.	1
ABD	As-Built Drawing. A final recorded drawing created in accordance with the built conditions in the field that has taken into account all changes made during the construction work process.	7
Aanwijzing	A preliminary justification given before the work is executed.	7