

PREFACE

Om Swastiastu,

Praise and gratitude be to the Almighty God, for His blessings, that the author has completed the master's thesis entitled “The Study of the Characteristics of Electricity Demand Potentials in Isolated Islands through Spatial Demand Forecasting”. This master thesis is submitted to fulfill one of the requirements to gain college master’s degree of Graduate School of Electrical Engineering, Telkom University.

In the process of working on this master's thesis, the author has gained a lot of insights and, of course, valuable experiences for the future. The author would like to express gratitude to all parties who have assisted, supported, and prayed for the author in completing this master's thesis successfully and smoothly.

“There is no such thing as perfection” that's how the proverb goes to describe this master's thesis, which the author feels still has some shortcomings. Therefore, the author hopes to receive constructive feedback, so that the author can improve the mistakes and be motivated to create even better work in the future. Hopefully, what the author has produced in this master's thesis will be useful for both the author and the readers.

Om Shanti, Shanti, Shanti Om.
