

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Alhamdulillah, thank you for all the prayers, knowledge, hard work, grace, and support given to the author while studying for a Master at Telkom University majoring in Electrical Engineering. The author has been guided and assisted a lot during the preparation of this Final Project. Therefore, the author would like to thank:

1. Allah SWT. has bestowed His grace and blessings so that the author is still allowed to live and fight until finally he can complete this Final Project.
2. Mama and Papa of the author have provided all the support, motivation, and prayers that never break.
3. The author's brother and sister are always a role model in everyday life and entertainment on the sidelines of the Final Project.
4. Dr. Yudha Purwanto S.T., M.T., as the first supervisor for all the guidance, criticism, suggestions, support, and convenience provided during the final project.
5. Dr. Andry Alamsyah, S.T., M.T., as the second supervisor who always provides direction, criticism, support, and guidance routinely, quickly, and clearly during the final project.
6. All lecturers of the Master of Electrical Engineering, who have provided knowledge, views, insights, and experiences during their education in the Magister Electrical Engineering department.
