

ABSTRACT

"Final Project: Visual Art Program, Faculty of Creative Industries, Telkom University

Fueled by feelings of loss of childhood home longing for that place. Having given the writer a sort of urgency to unwrap and analyse it the feeling of homesickness and its connection to childhood home came to mind, this experience started when a visit to the writer's childhood home is not heading as expected and its reality is not really good. Ushering a feeling of loss of that home and its memories inside. This paper explore the theme about homesickness and childhood home and how the the artist create an artwork and its concept around it Int this final task titled "Representation Of Homesickness Due To Childhood Home In Painting Artworks" The writer need to do research relevant topics that helps to accentuate the theme of the artwork that was to be made in in order to get a proper representation in the final artwork With a 3 series painting in order to represent the topic The painting will be done in oil paint as that medium of choice as a creation part of this paper using the technique that has been learn in this study program. Upheld by the research of the paper this medium could be the strongest way the writer could convey this concept

Keywords: Homesickness, Childhood home, Painting arts