

LIST OF TERMS

Artifact	: Tangible output or documented item produced during a process or project
ICT	: Information and Communication Technology, a department within an organization that focuses on managing and overseeing all aspects of information and communication technology.
LNG	: Liquefied Natural Gas, natural gas that has been cooled to a liquid state.
ERP	: Enterprise Resource Planning, a type of software used by organizations to manage and integrate key business processes.
BUMN	: Shorts of Badan Usaha Milik Negara which refers to Indonesia's state-owned enterprises
Holding	: A parent company that owns the majority of shares in one or more other companies (subsidiaries)
Sub-holding	: A subsidiary of the holding company that itself manages a group of related businesses or subsidiaries
Roadmap	: A strategic planning tool that outlines the steps, timeline, and priorities for achieving specific goals
Work Package	: A specific task or group of related tasks that can be assigned, tracked, and completed independently
TOGAF	: The Open Group Architecture Framework, enterprise architecture framework designed to enhance organizational process
ADM	: Architecture Development Method, a structured framework for developing and managing enterprise architecture effectively