

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

First and foremost, I would like to express my deepest gratitude to those who have supported me throughout the completion of this thesis.

1. I deeply appreciate the constant support of Dr. Vera Suryani, S.T., M.T., who guided me through this research with her valuable advice and continuous encouragement. Her thoughtful insights, patience, and dedication have not only shaped this work but also inspired my personal and academic growth, especially in rediscovering the essence of learning.
2. I express my gratitude to Dr. Farah Afianti who served as the Head of the Master of Cyber Security and Digital Forensics Program for her administrative backing and her helpful guidance that spanned from the beginning of my thesis to the end of my defense.
3. I want to thank all the lecturers in the program who have helped me develop through their teaching expertise and their guidance and backing.
4. I am deeply thankful to my MSF friends who provided me with continuous motivation and emotional support and encouragement. The presence of my friends helped me stay well and determined to reach the finish line especially Firza, Prima, and Kemal whose companionship and uplifting spirit have meant a great deal throughout this journey. I would also like to sincerely thank Aan Kasman for his invaluable expertise and insights on Cyber Threat Intelligence (CTI), which greatly enriched my understanding and contributed significantly to the quality of this research.