

ABSTRACT

PT. Wahana Kreasi Sejati is a business unit established by a foundation called Yayasan Riyadhatul Ihsan (YRI) to support all activities of the foundation. This business unit is responsible for the activities of publishing, printing and distribution of products YRI Tauhid books, record albums and audio-visual religious activities. In addition, the company form a business unit that also runs various businesses such as event organizing services and building maintenance.

Company that was established in 2007, until now still do not have a computerized financial system well. In fact, the financial system is one which is very important for the smoothness and continuity of a business. Until now the financial system on PT. Wahana Kreasi Sejati only using Microsoft Excel. This company does not yet have a database to store financial data.

Therefore, by the Finance System Application of PT. Wahana Kreasi Sejati is expected to be very helpful in the management of data and financial transactions, storing data in a database, and making periodic reports.

This application was built with a structured approach using waterfall method and implemented using Delphi programming language and MySQL database.

Keywords : application of the financial system, structured, Delphi, MySQL